1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Randolph Smith on 2/22/06.

IN THE CLAIMS

Claim 9, line 6, "are" has been changed to --is--.

Claim 16, line 4, before "surface" has been inserted --top--.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

the art of record fails to teach or suggest a photoelectric switch having first and second display sections disposed side by side on an elongated rectangular top surface of a casing, along a lengthwise direction thereof, the display sections displaying at least one of a first display information including a threshold value on the first display section and a current light reception amount on the second display section, and a second display information including a tolerance value on one of the display sections and at least one of the tolerance value and the current light reception amount on the other of the display sections; the second display information alternately including a maximum current light reception amount on one of the display sections and a minimum current light reception amount on the other of the display sections.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
